

Pictures from Prague

This year the USA walked off with the Golden Troika at the Prague Quadriennale.

A gold medal for design went to France (Yannis Kokkos) and a silver to Gt Britain (Ralph Koltai).

The gold for costume to Finland (Luisi Tandefeltova) and the silver to France (Agostino Pace). The specialist theme this time was designs for Chekov plays with gold and silver medals awarded to USSR and

W. Germany respectively.

The international jury cannot have found it easy to adjudicate on such a variety of excellent entries coming from more than 30 countries this time. CUE takes a look at some of the non-prize-winners among them which caught the attention of Jenny Bolt and Ingrid Angel whose excellent photographs are reproduced here.

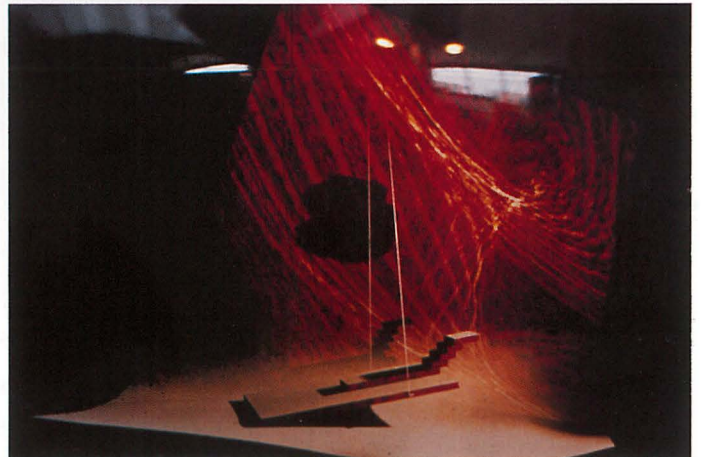

Costumes – Luisi Tandefeltova (Finland)

Summer Nights on the Earth – Ulla Kessiuis (Sweden)

The Cherry Orchard – Valen Lavental (USSR)

Odysseus – Svoboda (Czechoslovakia)

Ivanov – Borovsky (USSR)

Ignac Vono – Csaba (Hungary)